SINN FEIN HEAD ASKS BRITISH PREMIER FOR PEACE STEP AT ONCE

Text of Telegram to Lloyd George

DUBLIN, Dec. 5.—The Rev. Michael O'Flanagan, acting president of the Sinn Fein, has sent the following telegram to Premier Lloyd

"You state that you are willing to make peace at once, without waiting for Christmas. Ireland also is willing. What first step do you propose?"

There is a general sentiment, backed by ecclesiastical influence, in favor of a truce, but there is no expectation that any Sinn Feiner of an authoritative position will be able to meet the Government on essential conditions. Leading Sinn Feiners deny participation in the rumored negotiations.

The Sinn Fein organ says that the Government's repressive measures are merely undertaken to force a compromise, which must be resisted. The arrest of Griffith, MacNeill and other reputed moderates on charges of either culpable ignorance in the employment of Dail Eireann funds or knowledge that these funds were being used by the republican army to promote violence is considered inconsistent with the Government's desire for a truce.

Arthur Griffith issued this message to the Irish people: "To-day is Ireland's Valley Forge, to-morrow will be Ireland's Yorktown."

As an outcome of the Lockwood Lloyd George Also Wants to Obtain Truce in Ireland Before Christmas-Skittish on Having Labor Delegation Figure in Settlement.

It is regarded as certain that Premier Lloyd George has not given up determination, but without succe hopes of settling the Irish question himself, and it is thought that he Argentina's attitude remains adamanbody, clothed with great powers, which will renew his efforts to negotiate a truce before Christmas.

While much was hoped at first from the mediation of the Labor delegation now in Ireland, and it was expected that Arthur Henderson's return and report to Downing Street might lead to the needed solution, it begins to look in political circles as if Lloyd George were persuaded that he cannot afford to give the Labor party the prestige of settling the Irish Pueyrredon to-night. He is preparing question, and will not accept anything they have to offer.

Irish peace talk continues, even though some do not believe in it. Weekly Despatch says the negotiations have broken down and must be It can go on talking about typhus, but reopened anew, and adds that it is growingly evident that there is a split I am not going to waste my time in the Cabinet over the policy of conciliation. CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Earl H. Reynolds, of the South Bend Elevator Company and a member of the Board of Trade, has made his will on a phonograph record.

Attorneys James E. and Fran-cis J. Callahan dictated their names as the spoken "signatures" of witnesses.

"The voice is mightier than the pen," said Attorney James E. Callahan. "The judge before whom a phonographic will is offered for probate can tell whether the testator was strong or weak from the tone of his voice, as reproduced by the record. He can also judge whether the testator was of sound and disposing mind, from the fluency or lack of fluency evidenced by the record.

"The Illinois statute, which provides for a written will, should be modernized."
